

The Department of Legal Studies and the Summer University of Central European University (CEU), in co-operation with the Total Law team, are pleased to announce the course “TOTAL LAW: ADVANCED EUROPEAN LEGAL PRACTICE - Special Lisbon Treaty Edition” held in BUDAPEST, JULY 5-17, 2010

Deadline for application: March 1, 2010. Details about the program, admissions and academic requirements are available at www.summer.ceu.hu/total-law .

This advanced course is about the practice of European Union Law. Participants receive hands-on insider analysis about the functioning of the European Union. The program is designed to combine seminars on different subjects as well as workshops supporting the topics addressed in these seminars or some aspects thereof. The 2010 course gives a special focus on the Lisbon treaty as well as the consequences of the financial crisis.

The Total LawTM team, led by Joseph Weiler, University Professor and Jean Monnet Chair at New York University School of Law, is a unique blend of well known academics and senior officials working in the European Union institutions who have also written widely in the field. The members of this team are José M. de Areilza, Professor of European Union Law and Vice Dean of Legal Studies at Instituto de Empresa, Madrid; Kieran St C. Bradley, Head of Unit in the Legal Service of the European Parliament, Brussels; Damian Chalmers, Professor in EU law at the London School of Economics and Political Science; Miguel Poiars Maduro, Professor at the European University Institute, Florence; Imola Strehö, Senior Lecturer at Sciences Po, Paris and Emily K. White, coordinator of the Team, who is Research Fellow at the Jean Monnet Center at NYU Law school. The 2010 summer course was designed and put together by the Total LawTM team. The particular composition of the team gives the seminar and the workshop both that advanced knowledge and the insider view that is so valuable for the participants.

The course work will consist of seminars, workshops and daily assignments that will be completed individually or in group.

Please note that the Total Law course is a fee-paying course.
